CHEAP SCHOOL LUNCH

THREE-CENT SCHOOL LUNCHES SERVED A LA CARTE IN NEW YORK SCHOOLS

Possibilities in household economics are exemplified in the triumphs of a New York school lunch committee, an organization of women. Of course, it buys in large quantities and makes it a point to dispose of all scraps, but even so there is an unaccountable difference between the cost of lunching pupils in the public schools of Manhattan and the cost of lunching children and all other members of the family in the average American home. With three cents at his or her disposal the Manhattan pupil enters the Manhattan school lunch room and orders, a la carte, from a list comprising one baked sweet potato in jacket, mashed sweet potato in cone, rice pudding in cone, one hot sausage with slice of bread, one candied apple, two pieces of sweet chocolate, one banana, three figs, ice cream sandwich (one graham cracker with slice of ice cream), half orange peeled with one graham cracker, two small cakes or cookies of different kind, five molasses candy kisses, boiled dried peas in cone, two thick slices of bread and butter, two pretzels, one peanut butter sandwich, a two-inch square of apple pie, a two-inch square of custard pie, a two-inch square of shortcake, a single cake, boiled beans in cone, or one cheese sandwich, and the three cents will cover two or three of these items. Thus the pupil may have for three cents on Monday an a la carte luncheon comprising rice, tomato soup and bread; for Tuesday, mashed potatoes, meat gravy and bread; for Wednesday, pea soup and bread; for Thursday, lentils, rice and bread, and for Friday, potato soup, croutons and bread.

Such a regimen may not be always satisfying, and in such cases one or two other items, bringing the cost say to five cents, may be added, but as a rule the three-cent lunch suffices. It is not only cheap, but it is wholesome and fairly substantial, and it marks a tremendous advance from the time when a large percentage of children in city schools were compelled to go hungry during a part of the daily exercises.

It is not claimed that these prices cover the entire cost of providing the lunches, but we have the fact that in 1913, 174.199 lunches were served in seven elementary schools of Manhattan at a cost of $8640.29, or 3.29 cents per lunch, showing a loss of 1.67 cents a lunch. Taking the loss into consideration, the price is still far below the average cost of lunches privately provided, even in families where economy is practiced from necessity as well as from choice. The lesson to be drawn from all this, we believe, is that combination makes for cheapness in living. The system operated by a committee of women for the schools evidently would operate in like manner for families. Before there could be successful combination there would have to be successful organization, however, but on the other hand, organization should be as possible among families and groups of families as among school children and groups of school children. It appears to be a mere matter of getting down to a basis of neighborhood or commercial agreement for the common good.

In honor of the seventh birthday of her little son Robert, Mrs. R. L. Hendricks entertained with a matinee party followed by dainty refreshments at the Pig'n Whistle last Wednesday.

Those who enjoyed this pleasant afternoon were Mary Breunig, Margaret and Dorothy Breunig, Gertrude McCarthy, Mrs. Bull and Mrs. Breunig, all of Los Angeles, and Katherine Hendricks, the little honoree, Robert Hendricks and the hostess.

SMOKED OUT BY AUTO BUSSES

LONG BEACH, Sept. 8.—The Pacific Electric railway has announced its intention to abandon East Ocean avenue lines, the oldest and one of the most important in the city, as a result of the competition of the 110 automobile busses operating in this city, which have cut down the receipts of the railway in Long Beach more than forty per cent. The railway announces that the operation of the line is no longer profitable.

JOHNSON AND ESHLEMAN CLUB NON-PARTISAN

NUMBER OF GLENDALE CITIZENS MEET AND ELECT OFFICERS AND ADOPT RULES FOR GOVERNANCE OF CLUB—TALK MADE BY CHAIRMAN EVANS

In harmony with the opinion of many people in Glendale and vicinity that Governor Hiram Johnson is a good governor of the state of California and that J. M. Eshleman, who is a candidate for lieutenant-governor is a good man for the place, a goodly number of citizens of this community met Monday afternoon at the office of J. F. Lilly, 1106 West Broadway, for the purpose of organizing a non-partisan Johnson and Eshleman club.

The meeting was called to order by Albert D. Pearce, who placed in nomination Dr. Nat Green for temporary chairman. Dr. Green being elected temporary chairman, he at once asked that a temporary secretary be elected. Prof. A. W. Tower was elected to this position.

On motion the chair then appointed the following committee on organization: Albert D. Pearce, G. B. Woodberry and Mrs. P. A. C. Moore. After a brief conference the committee returned with the following report, which was adopted.

W. E. Evans, president.

Albert D. Pearce, secretary and treasurer.

J. W. Usilton, first vice-president.

H. P. Wilson, second vice-president.

Mrs. Frank S. Grosvenor, third vice-president.

J. C. Beldin, fourth vice-president.

P. A. C. Moore, fifth vice-president.

Dr. A. M. Duncan, sixth vice-president.

The following constitution was read and adopted:

Believing that good government should be commended and continued in our state and that the administration of Governor Johnson merits the unqualified endorsement by the people of the state of California, and believing that such endorsement should take the form of his re-election and the election as lieutenant-governor of John M. Eshleman, whose record as president of the railroad commission has done much to enable Governor Johnson to keep his pre-election promises by divorcing the railroads and other predatory corporate interests from pernicious activity in the politics of our state, we, the undersigned Democratic, Socialist, Republican, Progressive, Prohibitionist and Non-Partisan voters of Glendale and vicinity, hereby form a club to be known as the Johnson-Eshleman Non-Partisan club and we hereby adopt the following constitution for the governance of this club:

ARTICLE I

The name of this club shall be the Johnson-Eshleman Non-Partisan Club.

ARTICLE II

The purpose of this club shall be to take an active part as a club to secure the election of Johnson and Eshleman.

ARTICLE III

Officers—The officers of this club shall be a president, five vice-presidents and a secretary-treasurer, whose duties respectively shall be analogous to those of similar officers in similar organizations.

ARTICLE IV

The officers shall be elected by a majority vote at the organization meeting of this club, and shall hold office respectively until the close of the present state campaign and until their successors shall have been elected.

ARTICLE V

The president, at the first or organization meeting, shall appoint the following committees to act during his pleasure.

1. An executive committee consisting of five members, whose function shall be conference with and recommendations to the president on matters relating to the policy and business of this club.

2. A publicity committee, consisting of three members.

3. A finance committee consisting of three members.

4. An election committee consisting of two chairmen, one of whom shall be a woman voter, who shall have power to select her women's election committee, and a male member of each voting precinct represented in this club.

5. Membership committee, consisting of a chairman and two members each from every voting precinct represented by this club.

6. Registration committee, consisting of a chairman and two members each from every voting precinct represented by this club.

ARTICLE VI

Meetings—This club shall meet subject to the call of the president and the executive committee.

W. E. Evans, the newly elected chairman, and Albert D. Pearce, the newly elected secretary, took their places as officers of the organization. Chairman Evans spoke as follows:

Ladies and Gentlemen: I am indeed grateful for this most significant honor. I feel that we are about to enlist in a most worthy cause. The campaign which is now confronting the people of the state of California is, in my opinion, the most important one in her history. It is simply a fight between those who stand for good government and the reactionary forces. Prior to the election of Governor Johnson four years ago, California was enthraled as one of the most graft-ridden states in the Union. This news was current throughout the United States. Since the election of Johnson four years ago and by his election the state was redeemed and her people have been free. He has caused to be enacted certain measures of government that have proven to be blessings to her people. Again the old guard raises her head and asks the people to surrender the freedom and themselves to the old-time greed, to be administered and dealt out by the same old machine which has enjoyed a four years' rest in the "dry-dock." Will we permit it is the question. If Governor Johnson has made good his promises and if the carrying out of his promises has proven to be a faithful and righteous service to the peo-

O. E. BURCH IS INJURED

SON OF TROPICO CITY CLERK IS INJURED BY AUTO—OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST

Saturday night while returning with a party of friends from a Los Angeles theater, in attempting to board a Burbank car, O. Emmons Burch was struck by an automobile, thrown to the street, the auto passing over him as he lay on the street. The car was owned and run by S. Sanders of Sunset boulevard. Mr. Sanders assisted Mr. Burch to his car and hastened with him to the receiving hospital, where Mr. Burch's injuries were attended. The surgeons could not determine the full extent of Mr. Burch's injuries, but decided he was badly bruised and may have sustained internal injuries. Later Mr. Burch was removed to his home, 219 Cerritos avenue, Tropico, where he will be confined to his bed for a week or ten days. The accident occurred at the corner of Sixth and Spring streets. Mr. Burch is connected with the Union Oil Company of Los Angeles and is the son of City Clerk N .C. Burch and Mrs. Burch. The latter is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Louis Wagner, in Denver, returning to Tropico the first of October.

Mrs. Frank I. Marsh, accompanied by Miss Harriet Meyers, were the Sunday guests of Mrs. J. D. Botts and Miss Carrie Botts of Highland Park.

Mrs. L. B. Bowker and sister, Miss Adah Richardson of Santa Paula, were the over-Sunday guests of their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Richardson of South Central avenue.

Mrs. William Harvey, Jr., will entertain the Tropico Luncheon Bridge club at her home on West Tropico avenue Tuesday, Sept. 15.

Mr. Walter Chase and Miss Carrie Gilman motored over from Banning Saturday and were the over-Sunday guests of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Pollock of West Park avenue.

Mrs. David H. Imler, Miss Marjorie and Eugene H. Imler, were the guests at luncheon Monday of Mrs. Alfred Cooper and Wiley Cooper of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Don S. Erskine and daughter Dorothy have returned from Venice, where they spent several days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hibbert, who are spending the week at that pleasure resort.

The card party to be given at the home of Miss Mattie Belle and Miss Clara Provolt, 608 North Central avenue, Friday evening by the St. Mark's Episcopal choir, promises to be one of the most recherche social events given by the choir recently.

Dr. A. O. Conrad, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin of East Los Angeles, has returned from a three days' visit at Catalina.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal H. Davenport entertained with a merry dinner party at their home on Glendale avenue Monday evening complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Welton and son, who leave shortly on an extended visit to Chicago, where Mr. Welton goes as a delegate to the National Stationery Engineers' Association. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. George N. Lunn, Mrs. E. D. Welton, Miss Blanche Davenport and Allen Davenport.

MANY YOUNG PEOPLE AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Young people in surprising numbers attended divine worship Sunday evening at the First Baptist church and listened to the young people's minister deliver a heart-felt sermon on the love of God. Evening services certainly appeal to the class of young people that want to live right and accomplish something worth while in the world.

At the morning service Pastor Troy made his annual appeal for the financial support of the church. It is certain that the year's record of the local Baptist church along the line of finances will far exceed anything in the past. The preacher said:

"The Corinthian letters give the correct church order," and quoted I Cor. 16:2 (R. V.): "Christians should give toward the support of the church regularly upon the first day of the week, individually each one of you proportionately as he may prosper."

The cattle men of the central coast counties have formed an organization and will ask for legislation protecting the cattle interests of the state. Measures were also taken to stamp out cattle rustlers.

READY FOR VISITORS

PUBLIC PARK, DRINKING FOUNTAIN, REST-ROOM AND INFORMATION BUREAU NEEDED

In Saturday's issue of the Glendale Evening News mention was made about getting ready to receive the 1915 tourists. It is in place to say that many visitors from the East will come to California in the fall of 1914 and the cities that delay making preparations to receive strangers until 1915 will be indeed too slow to show any signs of genuine California prosperity.

Glendale citizens should hold a mass meeting under the auspices of the chamber of commerce, the Merchants' Association, the Tuesday Afternoon Club and all other clubs and organized societies, and at such mass meeting steps should be taken to at once make necessary arrangements for receiving the visitors.

Certain conveniences must be provided to assure comfort and a time of pleasure to strangers who come within our walls.

1. A rest-room equipped in the most modern way in a central part of the city near the car line should be arranged for without delay.

2. In connection with the rest-room there should be a bureau of information presided over by a competent person.

3. Drinking fountains should be installed at several places on the business streets.

4. Prompt action should be taken at once to have the weeds on vacant lots taken care of. It is a shame that our city is so overgrown with weeds.

The items mentioned above deserve the immediate consideration of every citizen of Glendale who has a desire to have the city rank in a class with the most modern cities of Southern California. Glendale has an ideal location, but the location will not do everything. The citizens must do their part and that work should be done without delay. The regular monthly meeting of the chamber of commerce should be held Friday evening of this week. Why not make this date a union meeting of all clubs and at this time decide upon what course shall be taken to get the good work started.

ATTORNEY EVANS AS FILM STAR

City Attorney W. E. Evans is being heralded as the knight who aids beauty in distress. Monday afternoon as he was motoring down Central avenue with Miss Light, a trained nurse, in his machine, his attention was attracted to a crowd at the corner of Colorado and Central avenue, recently the scene of a number of accidents. Beauty was lying prostrate on the pavement and Attorney Evans and Miss Light jumped from the machine to render any aid possible. Hardly had they reached her side when they found themselves directly in front of a camera, the operator diligently turning the crank. These good samaritans thought better of their impulse to aid the injured one and retired in some confusion.

WEDDED IN SANTA BARBARA

As another surprise to many comes the news of the wedding of Miss Maude Middleworth, former Glendale maiden, to Mr. Leslie Frederick Moe of Santa Barbara, the ceremony having been performed in Santa Barbara Monday, Sept. 7, by the Rev. George C. Wright, pastor of the Santa Barbara Baptist church.

The affair was very quiet and those present besides the contracting party and the officiating clergyman were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Middleworth and two sons, J. Ardway and W. Lewis Middleworth of West Fifth street, Glendale, brother and family of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Andrews, formerly of Glendale, and cousins of the groom.

The bride looked very attractive in a handsome dark blue tailor-made with hat and accessories to match. A corsage bouquet of Cecil Brunner buds and maidenhair fern completed her costume and lent an attractive touch of brightness and color.

Immediately after the ceremony the young people left 'mid the shower of rice and congratulations for an automobile honeymoon through the northern part of the state, at the conclusion of which they will return to Santa Barbara to make their home.

Miss Middleworth, a popular member of the Philathea class of the Presbyterian church, has a host of friends in Glendale who wish her much joy and happiness and are only sorry they have lost her in their circles.

All copy for advertisements and reading notices for the anniversary number of the Glendale Evening News should be forwarded to the Evening News office at once.

ENTERTAINS TEACHERS

YEAR OF SCHOOL WORK OPENS WITH A DELIGHTFUL LUNCHEON

The opening of school this morning brought many home from vacations and places, especially the V Glendale teachers, who are known "the happy family."

Mrs. Cora F. Taylor, the principal of the school, returned a few days ago from Loomis and Sacramento where she visited her father. Miss Lois Hatch is back in Glendale from the Yucaipa valley. Miss Iva Hunter has deserted her mountain retreat for the bright lights of the city. Miss Sadie Yarnell is cherishing fond remembrances of a splendid outing in the North, and the Misses Lorraine Mitchell, Lilly Smith and Maybelle Douglass are exchanging comments on short trips enjoyed by them during the summer.

Now, in honor of their home coming, Mrs. Taylor entertained these young ladies, together with Mrs. E. D. Yard and Mrs. P. S. Freeman, at a prettily planned luncheon in her West First street home, making it as she did an autumn party, with fruits and gorgeously tinted leaves used as decorations both on the table, where a delicious five-course collation was served, and in the living-room, where bright cut flowers were generously sprinkled in.

The afternoon was one of exceptional pleasure and truly coincided with the name, "the happy family."

MRS. JONES TO ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, president of the Tuesday Afternoon Club of Glendale, will entertain the newly elected executive board members of the club at luncheon in her home, 106 Orange street, Wednesday. Until 3 o'clock an executive session will be held and from 3 until 5 o'clock there will be an advisory counsel. The advisory council consists of the executive board and all the chairmen of the sections and committees, and boasts of about twenty-five members.

Mrs. Jones hopes to see all these representatives at the advisory council tomorrow afternoon.

PLACED ON HORNS OF DILEMMA

Editor News: A lady visiting in Glendale called on me last Sunday. She stated she had consulted a Christian Science practitioner. Mother Eddy's disciple told her she could give her no treatment without permission of her priest. Very considerate—quite clever to put me on the horns of a dilemma. I simply told the visitor to our fair city that the Catholic church condemned Christian Science, and for the following reasons:

First of all, it is pantheistic in doctrine. Mrs. Eddy, in her book, "Science and Health," says that there is no such thing as matter. This makes God all. Hence all is mind.

Secondly, it denies the free will of man, and declares that will power is an illusion of belief.

Thirdly, it denies that there is such a thing as sin. "If," says Mrs. Eddy, "soul sinned, it would be mortal. Because soul is immortal, soul cannot sin." Again: "The soul or mind is God, and God never sins."

Fourthly, it denies the consequence of sin. "Sin, sickness, disease and death have no objective reality."

Fifthly, it denies the personality of God. "God is the universe."

Sixthly, it denies the omnipotence of God. "God cannot produce matter."

Seventhly, it denies the incarnation. "Jesus is the ideal man." "Mary's conception of Jesus was spiritual."

Eighthly, it holds that Jesus did not suffer or die. "Suffering and disease are self-imposed belief of mortals." "He was alive in the grave."

Ninthly, it denies the Lord's resurrection, for "He did not rise again, since He did not die."

Tenthly, it twists the ascension in this fashion: "As a reward for His faithfulness He would disappear to material sense in the change which has since been called the ascension."

Eleventhly, it declares that no judgment awaits mortals, for there is no such thing as sin.

Twelfthly, it teaches that the Holy Ghost is expressed in Christian Science, and says that there is no such thing as trinity of persons in God.

With kindest regards, your humble servant in Christ,

REV. JAMES S. O'NEILL.

HOME CALL TO AMERICANS SHOULD BE HEEDED

Europe at the present time is not the place for Americans. While it is true that many thousands of them now on that continent are seeking an opportunity of leaving it, and while it is true that thousands of them are destined to reach home shores within the next week or two, it is also true that many more thousands of them have been lingering abroad, and are still lingering abroad, through choice. This fact has prompted the secretary of state at Washington to issue through the diplomatic and consular representatives of the United States an urgent home call. Americans in Europe who are not unavoidably detained there are strongly advised to hasten their return.

This is not altogether a personal matter. Americans prompted by curiosity or influenced by the lure of excitement to remain abroad during the progress of the war may claim to be entirely competent to care for themselves, and this claim may be quickly allowed without in the least affecting the point in question. The important thing, we think, is that their presence in Europe at this time and especially in the disturbed countries, constitutes at once a responsibility and an embarrassment for the governments of those countries, as well as for their own.

Facilities for the transportation of Americans in Europe to the United States are now being provided on a greatly enlarged scale. Within a very short time probably every one of them desirous of returning may do so. It is not only in their personal interest, but in the interest of international amenities, with which their country is seriously concerned, as we see it, that they should not delay their homecoming.

UNCLE SAM'S WAR AEROPLANE

An armored aeroplane, the most powerful and only one of its type in the world, has been received at San Diego from the Wright aeroplane factory at Dayton, Ohio, and is to be tested. It is the property of the United States government and is to be given trials by an expert flyer from the Wright factory.

The machine is fitted with a 100-horse power motor, capable of driving the plane at the tremendous speed of from 80 to 90 miles an hour. Underneath the engine and seats for driver and observer is a steel plate capable of preventing penetration from both rifle and shrapnel fire at an altitude of 2500 feet.

ple of our glorious commonwealth, then why shall we repudiate him and his policies by failing to re-elect him governor?

I would like to know what progressive measures brought about by Johnson the reactionary party would repeal. Would they again consign the railroad commission to realms of oblivion? They kept it buried so long as they were in power. What would they do with the board of control and other public service commissions placed among us by Johnson? It is reasonable to suppose that they would do away with the commissions whose services to the people have meant so much, if they were returned to the head of our government. I have not a reason why Johnson should not be re-elected, and if the people of the state who believe in a government of and by the people will rally to the cause and do their duty, he will be undoubtedly re-elected.

The president then appointed the following committees as provided for in the constitution:

Executive committee: Dr. Nat Green, Albert D. Pearce, A. W. Tower, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, Rev. E. H. Willisford.

Publicity committee: John W. Usilton, A. T. Cowan, Frank S. Chase.

Finance committee: O. A. Lane, H. A. Wilson, A. M. Parker.

Election committee: Mrs. P. A. C. Moore chairman for women, and T. W. Watson chairman for men.

Membership committee: S. C. Leppelman.

Registration committee: Mrs. F. S. Grosvenor.

There were present at this meeting Republicans, Democrats, Progressives and Prohibitionists, who willingly placed their names on the Johnson-Eshleman club list.

Persons present at this meeting were W. E. Evans, Albert D. Pearce, J. F. Lilly, H. P. Wilson, Dr. Jessie Russell, Mrs. P. A. C. Moore, Mrs. Frank Grosvenor, Dr. A. M. Duncan, A. T. Cowan, H. A. Wilson, Dr. Nat Green, J. W. Usilton, Dr. E. H. Willisford, J. S. Thompson, J. N. McGillis, A. W. Tower, K. C. Sippel, O. A. Lane, G. B. Woodberry.

HOME AGAIN FROM MOTOR TRIP

The following Glendale residents are home from a five-day motor and camping trip, which took them by way of Santa Anita canyon around the loop to Big Bear and then to Little Bear valley, where twenty-five squirrels and thirty quail were bagged and the limited number of trout caught. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMullen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beyea of Glendale and Mr. and Mrs. George Rice and father of Los Angeles.

"Automobile row" was well represented, too, for in the party were a Mitchell, Maxwell, Studebaker and the faithful little Ford.

NORTH GLENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Sampson and daughters, Miss Marjory Duncan and Miss Charlotte Sampson, of 1600 Ruth street, returned Sunday evening from a delightful motor trip to Fallbrook. The party were guests of Mr. E. J. Fish on the motor trip last Thursday morning,, who also was with the party during their stay in Fallbrook. The inland route was enjoyed on the way down, the party stopping at the Glenwood hotel in Riverside for a short time, from there going on to Mrs. Sampson's father's ranch home, where a sumptuous chicken pie dinner with other good things too numerous to mention awaited the hungry guests. Friday morning the guests were invited to Fallbrook to witness the Indian fiesta, for which extensive preparations had been made. Exciting, indeed, were the many sports indulged in by the different tribes assembled. Bull fights, war dances, the famous fire dance and many forms of gambling, which included horse racing, were some of the attractions, while the Indian village attracted many people. The affair was well attended. Motor parties from San Diego, Los Angeles and inland towns were in evidence. The San Juan Capistrana and San Luis Rey missions were visited on the way back, the happy party returning late Sunday evening by the coast route, very tired but realizing they had enjoyed an affair that in a few short years will be but a memory as the younger Indians, who are well educated, are fast leaving the old customs behind them.

The ladies in the neighborhood of North Louise street are collecting suitable warm winter clothing to fill a box to be sent in memory of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson to the widows and orphans of the British empire, France and Belgium, the same to be distributed by the Red Cross Society. The movement is a most worthy one that should be emulated by other neighborhoods, as surely there are stored away as food for moths many articles of good clothing in many homes that would be very useful to the many who are suffering for such in the war zone.

Rev. C. R. Norton of Belmont street, Glendale, occupied the pulpit at the Casa Verdugo First M. E. church for the morning service Sunday. An excellent attendance greeted the former pastor of this church. The evening service was abandoned, giving the young people the privilege of attending the Epworth League rally at the First M. E. church of Tropico.

Mr. U. F. Newlin of 710 North Louise street, with his son, Master Frederick, who just loves to go with father and whom Mr. Newlin is teaching the meaning of companionship in the fullest sense of the word, enjoyed a day in the Verdugo hills last Saturday. A camp outfit was carried along and a real taste of camp life was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stanton of Arden avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Maranville of Glendale, Mrs. E. Judd and daughter, Mrs. William Wilbur of 1105 San Rafael street, were guests of Mr. Stanton on a delightful motor trip to one of the popular beaches last Saturday, the party returning to North Glendale by moonlight.

Miss Helen Bettis of 1610 Stocker street entertained as her guest for the week-end Miss Ray Kelly of Los Angeles, Miss Winifred Prendleman and Mr. Ralph Greevy, also of Los Angeles, joined the merry party on Sunday, spending the day as guest of the charming hostess.

Miss Idelle Pittman, who for the past six weeks has been visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Pittman of 1001 North Pacific avenue, returned to Redlands today, where she is engaged in the millinery business.

Miss Mary Pierce of University avenue, Los Angeles, was the guest of Mrs. George Tyrrell at dinner on Sunday.

Leslie Fishel of Los Angeles was visiting old friends and neighbors in North Glendale Sunday.

C. E. UNION HOLDS PICNIC

The fifth annual picnic of the Los Angeles county Christian Endeavor Union was held at Verdugo park on Labor Day and between six and seven hundred members came forth to make merry and enjoy the day, which was one of the very best events ever held by this large and well-known organization. Games and all sorts of outdoor diversions were indulged in throughout the day, and of course a splendid repast with watermelons and things was made to disappear about noon.

CALIFORNIA CORN

Geo. B. Woodberry brought to the Evening News office Monday a stalk of sweet corn, Stowell's variety, that measured 9½ feet in height and had on it four quite well-formed ears. This stalk was taken from Mr. Woodberry's garden, where there are many others like it.

HOME FROM STRENUOUS JAUNT

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Weaver of 235 South Kenwood street returned Monday evening from an enjoyable outing of several days at Camp Baldy. That Camp Baldy has attractions for not a few is proven by the fact that the five hundred tents were filled and guests turned away on Sunday and Labor Day. Among the guests of the camp were Mr. Lawrence Parker of Los Angeles, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Parker of this city, with his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver brought back a record of thirty-three miles of tramping during their brief trip, inincluding the distance to and from the camp from Uplands and the successful attainment of the summit of San Antonio mountain, sometimes known as "Old Baldy."

PROGRAM OF FIVE REELS

Tuesday evening should find a large attendance at the Glendale theater, as "Si Perkins and His Country Store" will be there between the two regular performances. Those that have heard of "Si" will surely all be there, and those that are not acquainted should be on hand and find out all about him. This will take the place of the regular drawing and the patrons should remember to bring all their coupons.

The regular program of five reels will be run as usual. It consists of the "Animated Weekly" of current events, "The Call Back," a one-reel drama played by Kerrigan; "In a Persian Garden," a two-reel society drama, and "Ike in Pursuit of Eats," one of the funniest of the funny ones.

ELOCUTIONARY RECITAL

Reserve Tuesday evening, Sept. 8, to hear the elocutionary recital and address by Eva Craven Wheeler.

Mrs. Wheeler is one of America's most talented readers, and renders a program of diversified interest.

The program will be full of wit, humor and clever impersonations. A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of California "dry" 1914.

At the Presbyterian church, Broadway and Cedar street, Tuesday evening, Sept. 8th, at 8 o'clock. Come out and hear this talented speaker. Campaign song service at 7:30. For everybody. 19t2
